Why?

“My soul is overwhelmed with sorrow to the point of death”

Jesus in Mark 14:34

I'm hanging on by a thread
And all I'm clinging to is prayers
And every breath is like a battle
I feel like I ain't come prepared
And death's knockin' on the front door
Pain's creepin' through the back Fear's crawlin' through the windows...

Tell God I need a whole lotta hope keeping it together

I'm smilin' in everyone's face I'm cryin' whenever they leave the room
They don't know the battle I face
They don't understand what I'm going through

Suffering and the cross...

- 1. We have a God who shares in our suffering

Isa 53:3

Matt 14:34

Psalm 88

Joni Eareckson Tada

“I have entered many Buddhist temples in different Asian countries and stood respectfully before the statue of the Buddha, his legs crossed, arms folded, eyes closed,
the ghost of a smile playing round his mouth, a remote look on his face, detached from the agonies of the world.... but each time after a while I have had to turn away”.

And in imagination I have turned instead to that lonely, twisted, tortured figure on the cross, nails through hands and feet, back lacerated, limbs wrenched, brow bleeding from thorn-pricks, mouth dry and intolerably thirsty, plunged in God-forsaken darkness. That is the God for me! ... He entered our world of flesh and blood, tears and death. He suffered for us. Our sufferings become more manageable in the light of his”.

“The Cross of Christ”, p335

“Well” he said, “It’s all over. I wouldn’t have missed it for anything. It was rough all right. But I learned an awful lot that I couldn’t have learned at the university or anywhere else. For one, I’ve learned about the real things of life, and for another, it’s great to be still alive”. I knew exactly what had made him say this. The experiences we had passed through had deepened our understanding of life and of each other. We had looked into the heart of the Eternal and found him to be wonderfully kind.
