FEELING SHEEPISH?!

Q: How can I be less sheepish in gospel outreach...

- I should speak of Jesus (v14) "I am a debtor"
- I want to speak of Jesus (v15) "I am eager"
- I'm proud to speak of Jesus (v16) "I'm not ashamed"

A: An increasing understanding of the wonder of the gospel...

POWERFUL (v16)

UNIVERSAL (v16)

FREE (v17)

So who will you share the good news with?

Unashamed Study #4 Romans 1:14-17

1. Can you list some of the reasons why sharing our faith/speaking about Jesus can be so difficult? Do you think that every follower of Jesus should be a spokesperson for Jesus? Is there help in Jesus' responses in Luke 9:57-62?
2. How would you describe Paul's attitude to sharing the gospel in Romans 1v8-17? Can you review from the verses what it is about the good news that makes Paul so keen to share it with people?
3. "We won't ever share the good news until we see that it is good news!" Can you explain why it is such good news? Is there anything about the message that you find difficult to take, or difficult to understand that you need help with?
4. Spend some time sharing the names of individuals who you would love to see discover the wonderful good news about Jesus? What is their next step? You might like to think about where on the "Great Commission Grid" they are, (discussed in week 1 below), and how you can help them onwards. Make sure you leave time to pray for them!

	ENGAGE "Go"			EVANGELISE "Baptising"			EDIFY "Teaching"
	Initial Contact	Relationship Building	Serving Others	First Conversations	Deliberate Gospel chats	Steps towards Commitment	Christian Living	Ongoing Growth	Equipping to serve others

Finally...

Romans is all about the good news! So you might like to consider reading through it in your own time to strengthen your understanding and appreciation of the gospel. If you need some help/resources to get into the book, talk to your Life Group leader or Charlie. One particular recommendation is:

- "Momentous News"- 50 short undated bible readings on Romans by David Cook. (£3.99 from 10ofthose.com or £0.99 as an Ebook on your phone).
