The background is a dark, monochromatic image of a ruined stone archway. The arch is made of large, rectangular stone blocks, some of which are missing or crumbling. The sky visible through the arch is filled with heavy, dark clouds. The overall mood is somber and dramatic.

What will the righteous do?

Psalm 11

Introduction

- Jesus in the Psalms
- David as the writer
- Jesus as music director
- The church as the choir led by the Music Director

Structure

- The Lord Our Refuge (v1 -3)
- The Lord Examines (v4-6)
- The Lord Judges (v7)

The Lord Our Refuge

Psalm 11 v 1 -3

- The Writer: For David, God is his refuge in the face of difficulties.
- The Music Director: Jesus remained steadfast, fully trusting and confident in God.
- The Choir: Through Jesus, we have refuge in God to endure difficult times.

The Lord Examines

Psalm 11 v 4 -6

- God is in His holy temple and on His throne.
- God examines everyone and punishes the wicked.

The Lord Examines

David
1 Sam 24:6-7

Jesus
Hebrews 4:15
1 Peter 2:22-23

The Church
1 Corinthians 10:13

The Lord Examines

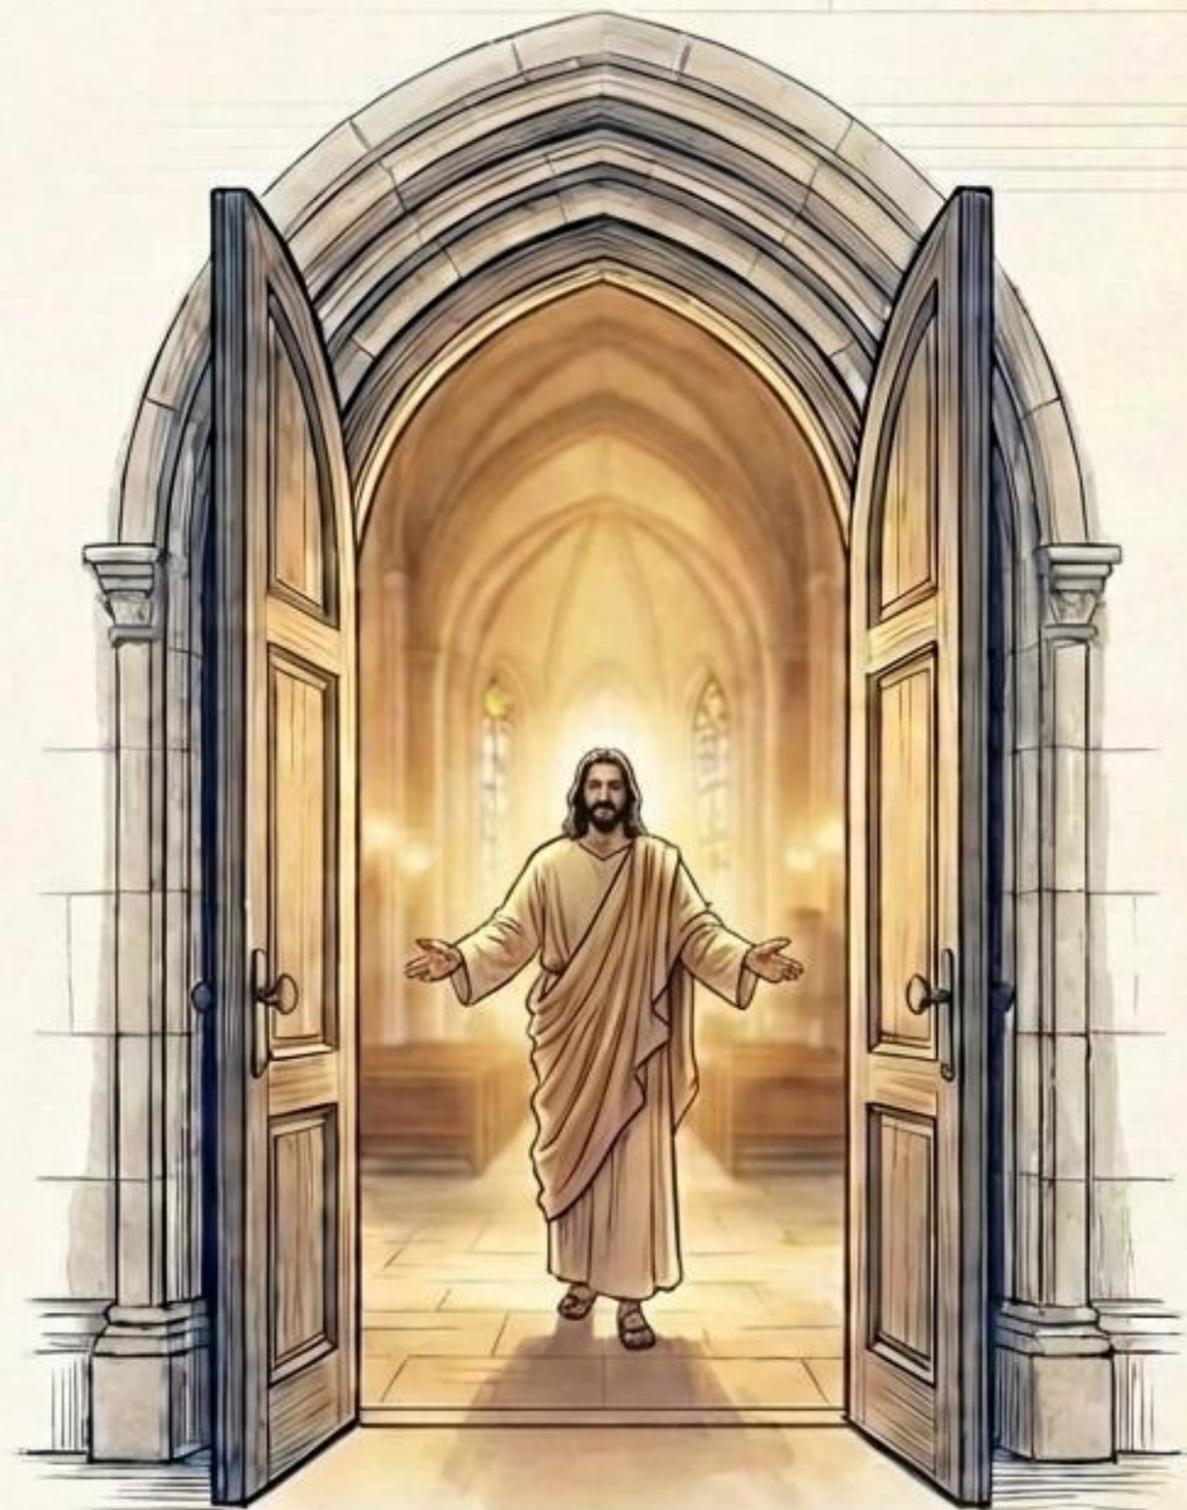

- Psalm 11 v 4 -6
- God is in His holy temple and on His throne.
- God examines everyone and punishes the wicked.
- Jesus knew the Father was with him and in control.
- Jesus helps us to know that God is with us and guides us.

The Lord Judges

Psalm 11 v 7

- God loves and rewards the righteous.
- Jesus, our righteousness, leads us in righteousness, and we will see His face.
- For the wicked, eternal punishment awaits.

Invitation

When we go through difficult times,
Jesus wants us to know that He has gone through them and he wants to guide us

