Here are some questions to help dig further into Romans 8:1-4...

1. Have you or Christians you have known ever struggled with issues of assurance? That is to say worries and wobbles about where you stand with God? What might be some different reasons different people might struggle with this? Pray that Romans 8 is a great encouragement and help to us all.
2. The concept of a “massive liberation” of one law setting us free from another law in v2 sounds quite complex, but in pictorial form it’s more simple. With Romans 7 and 8 in mind, can you explain or improve on the diagram below? The sermon started with the right hand side first though the left hand side comes first in the order of v2.

3. From this passage, how would you explain to a non-Christian friend the difference that the Cross and the Spirit make to your life when you turn and trust Jesus? See v3&4. Why is it so important that we include both parts?
4. We'll understand more about living “in the realm of the Spirit” (a description of all Christians) in the coming sermons. Meanwhile, do you have any questions so far? How might this chapter make a difference to your prayers?
